- Stamps are to be sold by retailers at the same retail price they are offered at www.alluringimpressions.com (occasional sales are permitted as long as they are occasional, and not limited to solely to Alluring Impressions images).
- Stamps are to be resold in original packaging with original index sheets including the Alluring Impressions company name. You may download photos of our stamp sheets to be used on your website, however you may not download samples as the copyrights of those belong to the artist (you may link to them on our website, though).
- This agreement does not imply exclusivity or distribution rights of a wholesaler.
- Alluring Impressions reserves the right to end any wholesaler/reseller relationship it feels does not support this agreement.

We look forward to serving you.
